Dear Hoppy,

A while back I had mentioned some additions and corrections to the Bojorques material. It is enclosed. I don't know who is taking care of this and if they want to insert the new pages into the appropriate part and clip apart these pages where several <sup>new</sup> were typed on one page and paste on the bottom of the numbered page or if there is not room then on the back or simply keep all these new items sepetate, from the pre-existing parts.

Sincerly

A black and white photograph of two men standing side-by-side outdoors. The man on the left is wearing a light-colored, long-sleeved button-down shirt tucked into dark trousers, secured with a dark belt. He is smiling and looking towards the camera. The man on the right is wearing a light-colored, short-sleeved button-down shirt tucked into dark trousers. He is also smiling and looking towards the camera. They are standing on a light-colored, possibly sandy or gravelly ground. In the background, there are trees and a dark, possibly wooden structure or fence. The overall tone of the photograph is candid and personal.
